

Fractured GNSS Fairy Tales: Flaws and Fallacies in PNT Policy

Glen Gibbons, Inside GNSS

Civil GPS Service Interface Committee

September 18, 2012 — Nashville, Tennessee

Should have been . . .

. . . watching
Mr. Wizard
(Don Herbert)

Probably was . . .

. . . watching
The Rocky &
Bullwinkle
Show

Fractured GNSS Fairy Tales

Spoiler Alert — topic foreshadowing

- 1) Short-Term Thinking
- 2) Scattered Governance
- 3) Begging-Bowl Budgeting
- 4) Privatization of Public Resources
- 5) Magic of the Market
- 6) “We Don’t Need No Stinkin’ Backup!”
- 7) Confidence in System Security

Flaw #1 – Short-term Thinking

Flaw #2 – Scattered Governance

Flaw #3 – Begging Bowl Budgeting

Flaw #4 – Privatization of Public Resources

Fallacy #1 – The Magic of the Market

Fallacy #2 – “We Don’t Need No Stinkin’ Backup!”

Fallacy #3 – Security of the System

Fractured GNSS Fairy Tales

Thank you.